

BIOGRAPHY

Award-winning Canadian actress, Christine Solomon has been a performer since her tender years and has worked in a wide range of Canadian, American and International productions. She is already an established staple in the entertainment industry in Egypt.

Versatility is a key feature of Christine's body of work, which includes over 20 stage plays, voice-over gigs, television and film roles such as THE SCORE (2001) starring academy award winner Robert De Niro and Marlon Brando, VH1's HYSTERIA: THE DEF LEPPARD STORY (2001), Sony Pictures' HEAD IN THE CLOUDS (2004), HBO Canada's FAKERS (2009), hosting duties, music videos, television commercials, and endorsement deals. The trained theatre actress has also starred in award-winning foreign films such as BASRA (2008) and HELIOPOLIS (2009) that have reached regional and international success in Europe, North/South America and throughout Africa.

Solomon appreciates the opportunity to work for positive causes. She has joined as the lead host for GMC and Josh Duhamel's campaign BUILDING FOR AMERICA'S BRAVEST and has also been chosen as the new 2018 spokesperson for the Acne and Rosacea Society of Canada's Rosacea Awareness Campaign.

The multi-talent can be seen next in MY STRETCH OF TEXAS GROUND (2019), directed by Erich Kemp.

Christine Solomon's charismatic personality shines through her onscreen personas, she topped local and foreign press such as Entertainment Tonight Canada, TV Week, Sharp Magazine, National Post, Toro Magazine, Radio Canada, MSN Arabia, Al Ahram, Rotana, Variety Arabia, Screen India, Emirates Woman Magazine and many other publications.

On the other side of the camera, Christine has served on the 25th Annual Screen Actors Guild Awards Television Nominating Committee and has been an official juror for several film festivals.

Christine splits her time between Canada and the United States. When she isn't busy working on a project, she enjoys writing and traveling.

CHRISTINE SOLOMON